

UNIVERSITY MISSOURIAN

SIXTH YEAR

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1913

NUMBER 10

BREWER WANTS MORE MATERIAL

Staff is Not Satisfied With Prospects in the Fifty Candidates Out.

NEED MORE BACKS

Squad Gets Lessons After Practice Last Night—Freshman Game Saturday.

A division of the line men, back field and ends was made in the football practice of yesterday afternoon. Mr. Schulte gave the line men their work out, and Professor Brewer had charge of the backs and ends in punting and tackling practice, and it was followed in the evening by a drill on the rules and a study of plays. Only one or two men have been added to the squad each day for the last three or four days. This makes the number now almost fifty, but the coaches are still calling for more men. They need every available prospect.

Mr. Schulte said today that in reality an entire new team was being built here this year. Although there are a number of the old men back, they do not play the positions necessary to form the nucleus of a championship team. They played an individual game entirely. Mr. Schulte is working hard to drill team work into the line. He added that another and one of the greatest needs of the team was a back-field which could run interference.

The men under the direction of Professor Brewer yesterday were kept hard at work punting and tackling. Shepard, Dunckel, Wilder, Lake and McWilliams are doing the kicking and are all doing fairly well. They are getting the punts off much faster than they did in practice last spring, but more speed is desired.

The team is still in its infancy, and the positions are uncertain. The men are being played in first one position and then another in the effort to build the most efficient eleven. Observation of the practice of the last few days shows that the men are playing more or less regularly in the following positions: Center, Wilson and Gallagher; guards, Gallagher, Clay, Daugherty and Groves; tackles, Kemper, Clay, Zimmerman and Speedman; ends, Herndon, Lucas, Woody, Taylor, Savage, Armstrong, Shepard, Dunckel and Wilder; quarter-back, McWilliams, Huston, MacMoreland and Collins; half-backs, Wiggins, Lake, Moore, LaRue and Birch, a member of the 1910 freshman team; full-back, Shepard, Dunckel, Wilder and Groves.

The first time that the men will be lined up in any regular way whatever will be in the game next Saturday with the freshmen and scrubs. The game will be called at 3 o'clock, and three twenty-minute periods of football will be played, the freshmen and scrub teams alternating against the Varsity. No line-up has been made for this game as the coaches intend to use nearly every man on the squad.

No effort is being made to pick the regular team in time for the Drury game, October 4. M. Brewer and Mr. Schulte are looking farther ahead into the season, and the Drury game will be used to try out many of the men. Drury has a team of old men, a fast college team last year. They have been practising about two weeks longer this fall than have the Tigers.

VIEWS FROM THE SIDE LINES

An Afternoon With Those Who Watch Football Practice.

"Well there's one thing certain," said the junior engineer, who sat on the bleachers and watched the football practice the other afternoon, "we're going to have a fighting team this year."

Fight—a whole lot of it—is what is characterizing the Tiger workout in the eyes of those who were out for a couple of hours. There are nearly sixty Tigers out and they all work all the time.

The crowd is good humored and does not seem particularly interested, this early in the season, at the fate of Kansas. In fact the greatest enjoyment came in picking out the familiar faces and guessing who the others were.

"There's old Gallagher," came a buzz as the biggest man on the field trotted out. Then there is some enthusiastic discussion as to whether Gallagher weighed more last year than he does now and whether he runs faster. All

SHOWERS TONIGHT, MAYBE

Tomorrow Will Be Generally Fair and Colder.

There probably will be showers tonight according to the government weather forecast. The weather will be colder, too. Tomorrow will be generally fair and colder.

The temperatures:
7 a. m. 61 11 a. m. 54
8 a. m. 62 12 (noon) 53
9 a. m. 63 1 p. m. 53
10 a. m. 58 2 p. m. 53

The M men are easily recognized and quite a number of the other players are also familiar. Lake, who has never made his letter, was known of course, and several of last year's freshman team are favorites.

To listen to the "bleachers," a stranger would believe certainly that the Tigers are composed of a bunch of very ancient gentlemen.

"Look at old McWilliams." There goes old Lake. "Well, old Shepherd's back"—these and many more in all of which the player was designated as "old." It takes a second look at the tense, youthful faces for the chance spectator to observe that the men on bleachers are merely applying a phrase of endearment.

A round of hand-clapping greets Schulte's call for scrimmage. And by the way, this Coach Schulte is rapidly becoming a favorite here in Missouri.

"Say, just listen to that fog-horn," shouts a freshman, when the coach calls somebody a big Dutchman and reminds the player that he is now engaged in a football contest. Schulte has a way of talking to the men that sounds good. He gets after them and they work for him. With Professor Brewer also on the field, Missouri should not lack for coaching this year.

The scrimmage isn't very exciting, but it is fair. Neither team makes a touchdown, although Shirley Lake gets his eleven near enough to the goal posts to make a try at a place-kick. There is "nothing doing" in the scoring line, however, for the kick does go right. Moore and McWilliams make good gains and Groves, a last year's tackle, put in at fullback, plows through a strong line for several yards.

Before the scrimmage the crowd watches forward passing and sees a squad of forty or more take turns hurling themselves at a defenseless tackling dummy. That isn't exciting and the talk actually turns to school work. Somebody starts a rumor that there is a petition out to get a two-day vacation Thanksgiving, and in less time than it takes to tell the whole stand knows of it. Everybody is trying to find the petition but nobody can.

Pretty soon Shepherd and Dunckel are put to kicking. The crowd discusses Shepherd's kicking freely. Once he boots one from one side of the track clear across the field to the other side of the track and there are quite a few yells of "some kick" and "that's the boot."

There is quite a sprinkling of freshman caps and all the wearers want to learn the players and some yells. They all think it is great to see a football scrimmage and not have to pay for it.

The practice is good but the coaches say there should be twice as many men on the field every night and that this year Missouri will be represented on the gridiron by one of the lightest teams in the Valley.

BARTON WILL NOT RETURN

Missouri Tackle Writes That He's Under Contract to Sell Hats.

"Nothing in the world would give me more pleasure than to come back to school and play football another year, but I can't break my contract with the company," began a letter to R. D. Groves from G. A. Barton, left tackle on the Varsity for the past two years. "Fat" has been in the employment of the Barton Hat Company for the past three months and wants to fulfill his contract of a year.

"Selling hats isn't an easy job for me," said Barton, "but I am going to show them up here that I can stick, and while I'm selling hats I'll have to be content to 'pull' for the Tigers."

NO TRIP TO HARRISBURG

Weather Caused Postponement of the Road Meeting.

The proposed automobile trip of the Columbia and Moberly Commercial Clubs to Harrisburg today was postponed on account of weather. It was the plan of the two commercial clubs to meet at a dinner given by the Harrisburg Commercial Club to further the plans of the Jefferson City-Moberly automobile road. This road will pass through Columbia and Harrisburg.

It is the purpose of the commercial clubs to secure immediately a forty-foot right of way and repair all culverts this fall. The road will not be surfaced until next spring. Columbia citizens are boosting the Sexton road for the county seat road to Moberly. An annual sum of $15 a mile would be given by the state. This amount will be used to keep the road in repair.

LAWYERS SAY JEROME A BLUFF

Attorneys Still Fighting Over Thaw for Extradition.

By United Press.
CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 25.—Harry K. Thaw's attorneys declared today that Jerome was bluffing when he charged conspiracy to escape as the indictment on which extradition is demanded. The "man higher up" who says Thaw must be apprehended is thought to be a creation of Jerome's in order to strengthen the bluff. Thaw's friends say they are assured that Thompson, Thaw's chauffeur, will testify regarding the alleged plot to escape from Matteawan Asylum as soon as Thompson returns from Canada. The arrival of the yacht Alcide at Portsmouth today, at a season when such yachts are seldom seen, has led to the belief that it came to remove Thaw to New York should Governor Felker grant extradition.

OLD BAND MEN TO COME FOR K. U. GAME

Venable Is Writing All Who Ever Played for M. U.

FIFTEEN ACCEPTED

They Have Promised to Brush up Old Horns to Help Form M.

When the University Cadet Band forms its "M" during the Missouri-Kansas game, November 22, the sight will be of unusual interest. George Venable, director of the band, is writing to every man who has ever belonged to the University Cadet Band. He is urging them to come back to the Kansas game and to bring their instruments with them. Fifteen men have already signified their intention of doing so, and we are sure to have upon the field that day four of five generations of University musicians, he says. Some of them say they have not touched the old horn in years, but are going to brush it up and show how it was done in the good old days. Mr. Venable says the band this year gives promise of being the best he has ever directed in the University of Missouri.

"Last year," said Mr. Venable, "we had to turn really good cornetists away, because the reed and trombone section was not strong enough to warrant a large cornet section. This year, however, we have nine or ten clarinets and three piccolos which, with a trombone section of six, will make a well balanced band with even ten or a dozen cornets. All the men seem to be serious in their desire to produce good music and there is even a greater scarcity than last year of men who join the band to avoid carrying a gun."

The band numbers about forty at present but only thirty-six will be taken to Kansas City to play for the Royal Live Stock Show, October 9, 10 and 11. The full instrumentation will be taken to St. Louis for the Washington game. A concert will be given by the band upon the Quadrangle, a few nights before it leaves for Kansas City.

Concerning the orchestra, however, the director is not so optimistic. Almost every "first chair" man was lost by graduation last year. Two cellos, two string bass, and two french horns have not returned. Thus it will be almost an entirely new orchestra. Mr. Venable, instructor in orchestra, issues an urgent call for all men in the University who play orchestral instruments to report to him at once in his office in the basement of Academic Hall.

"The Board of Health says that the water is pure and we intend to do everything possible to keep the water in this condition."

The City Council will meet again tonight, but Mr. Moore said he did not know whether or not the question of the city water would come up.

TUBERCULAR PATIENTS TREATED BY C. O. S.

Forty-six Sufferers Are Cared for by Representative of the Society.

SELECT NEW WORKER

Successor to Former Field Secretary Will Be Chosen Today.

D. E. Major, a cousin of Governor Major, was selected by the committee of the Columbia Charities' Association and Society as field secretary. The selection was made after careful investigation and consideration, according to Dr. Ellwood of the committee. There were four applicants, all of them strong, but it was thought Mr. Major could serve the community best.

Mr. Major's office is in the Boone Building opposite the postoffice where he may be found any day from 2 to 3 o'clock. His telephone number is 889.

Through the work of the Columbia Charity Organization Society, forty-six tubercular patients are being cared for. The work now is in charge of Miss W. T. Bryant, who has been visiting the patients since the resignation of Miss Laura Searcy, former field secretary for this city. The further business of the society carried on by its representative, the field secretary, is the aid to the poor and unfortunate of the city, especially in the colder season to come in the next few weeks.

The first meeting of the society, since June, was held in the Commercial Club rooms in the Virginia Building yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called primarily to select a field secretary to succeed Miss Searcy, who resigned to accept a position in the Mexico, Mo. schools.

The merits of four applicants were presented by Dr. C. A. Ellwood. A committee composed of Prof. A. W. Taylor, Doctor Ellwood and W. D. Shaw, a member of the Conley Fund Committee of the City Council, was appointed to act with full power in the selection. The committee will probably make a decision today.

The members discussed the methods of co-operation in the handling of receipts from the Conley Fund of $30,000, three-fourths of the interest from which is used for charity. The fund is handled by a committee from the Columbia City Council, which works in conjunction with the Charity Organization Society.

Funds are also derived by solicitation from the citizens of Columbia, and the money is divided into three funds, emergency, anti-tuberculosis, and administrative. The condition of the finances of the society was reviewed, and a more systematic handling of the resources was decided upon.

The officers of the society are: President, E. W. Stephens; vice-president, G. B. Rollins; secretary, The Rev. M. A. Hart, and treasurer, F. P. Miller. The next meeting of the society will be held in the Commercial Club rooms Monday, October 6.
